Message from the Headteacher

We are now getting into the swing of our return to school, with pupils settled into their new classes. I have been so proud of how well the children have come back into school and have settled into the routines of the school day. This is thanks to the hard work from our staff and parents working collaboratively together.

On Tuesday, Year 5 had a very busy day. In the morning, they started their swimming lessons at Chipping Norton Leisure Centre and after lunch, their Brass lesson.

Year 5 and 6 also led by Mr Grey from Oxfordshire Music Services.

Year 5 and 6 have begun their weekly African drumming workshops this week. They created amazing sounds and the beat was catching.

Next Thursday, we will be celebrating the new school year with a Back to School Mass which will be led by Fr Clive.

Also next week, Mr Goodall will be starting his piano and singing lessons. These will take place on a Monday and Friday.

Have a wonderful weekend.
